- Cindy Korrub, Jodi Kahn and Debbie Barnes will be putting together a list of rules and regulations for hot lunch volunteers.
- Discussed a See's Candy fundraiser for after winter break. Voted on: motion by Cindy, second by Jodi and all approved.

Vice-president's Report:

- Jodi had found an announcement in the Deerfield Review regarding proposed tax increases. Debbie Barnes told Jodi to talk to JoAnn Desmond to find out any information on this.

Principal's Report:

- Math Night: sixty to seventy people attended including kids, parents and siblings.
- Debbie Barnes and Liz Ciko met with Debbie Goldman re: Spring play. They are still deciding the specifics. Open to all 5th thru 8th graders (tryouts but no-cuts). Play will be end of April/ beginning of May, dates to be announced.
- Connie Anderson was in an accident, injuries include a broken leg. She is in a nursing home in Naperville. She will be out through the end of December. We hope she is getting better soon.
- Yearbook: Deadline to order is this week. This is not a money making thing for the school. School usually orders one per child but they never sell that many. This year they did not order as many. Please get orders in.
- A group of 8th graders are working with Adrienne Gallagher on graphic designs for the year book.

Teacher Liason:

- Duke will make sure teachers know that Stacie Danielewicz will be the contact person going forward for field trips/ cultural arts.

Cultural Arts:

- Stacie Danielewicz and Sharon Kregel need to coordinate on specific checks that need to be cut for cultural arts, ie: Staley, Marriot play, etc.

Fundraising/ Committee's:

- Book Fair: Sold over $5000 so school to receive approximately $1000 in gift cards.

- School Supplies: Number of people who ordered this year was down over previous years. Liz suggests we find out how many people are interested in ordering school supplies going forward. Is it worth it? Liz will put together an email to go out to all parents asking them if they plan on ordering school supplies for next year.
- Hot Lunches: Janan discussed that in February they will begin the second half of the year hot lunch program. After winter break she will send out an email to all parents letting them know to look at January orders on line because all the current order information will be erased.

Motion to adjourn was made by Janan, second by Liz. Meeting adjourned at 10:40 a.m.

Minutes respectfully submitted by,
Sara Danielewicz
