

INSTRUCTION

Individualization of Instruction

It is the intention of the Board of Education that instruction shall be delivered on an individualized basis.

Therefore, it is the policy of the Board that the professional staff and the administration shall assess the individual needs of students, develop appropriate educational programs, and implement instruction that will result in a successful learning experience and promote a positive self-image within each child.

First Reading

Adoption: August 21, 2002

REVISED: February 20, 2008